TERMS OF PARTICIPATION

If you cancel your participation in the event after you have registered, we reserve the right to charge a cancellation fee. In the event of cancellation within the last 8 days before the start of the event, we must retain or demand the entire conference fee. In any case, however, you can nominate a substitute participant. However, substitute participants can only claim reduced fees if they are members.
By participating in the event, participants authorise Eyes & Ears of Europe to take photographs of the participants without any special remuneration and to use them without any time, space or media restrictions as part of Eyes & Ears of Europe's press and public relations work.

*We send out the Eyes & Ears eNews approximately once a month, which contains news about our members as well as current job adverts, book and event tips. You will also receive all the information about our events. Of course, you can easily unsubscribe from the eNews and event information at any time. You will find an unsubscribe link at the end of each newsletter.
